MEDICINAL.
IT'S EASY TO GET IN, where there's a sluggish liver, for any of the germs of disease that surround you. If your liver were active and healthy, it would keep them out of your blood. You'll have to watch your liver for self-protection.
Just as soon as you see the first symptoms that it's wrong (eruptions on the skin, or a dull and worn-out feeling) you ought to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
It will start your liver into a healthy action, purify your blood, too; it will brace up your whole system, and give you strength and color, and put on needed flesh—not fat, but wholesome, necessary flesh.
Dr. R. V. Pierce, Dear Sir—I heartily recommend your "Discovery" to any person suffering from general debility as the best thing they can take for it. After taking the "Discovery" I am happy to say I never felt better in my life than I do now.

The Walton Election Law.
The following is a synopsis of the Walton election law, giving in full the section in regard to the duties of the constable:

The 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th sections provide for the registration of the candidate's name, and state the kind of ballot to be used—one like the ballots used in our primary elections conducted on the Australian plan.

Section 5 places the duty of having the ballots printed by the electoral board, and specifies that there shall be twice as many as the number of voters.
Section 6 provides for an oath to be taken by the printer that he will keep secret the size, etc., of the ballots, and destroy all above the number required.
A member of the board is to be present when the ballots are printed and counted, and receive $2 as his pay. The members of the board are also pledged to secrecy, and any violation of the section shall be punished by a fine of $200 and one month in jail.

Sections 7 and 8 provide for the distribution of the ballots to various precincts and voting places, requiring all ballots remaining unused shall be destroyed before the ballot box is opened and the vote counted. Same punishment as section 6 for violation.

Section 9 provides for the booths.
Section 10 requires that only the voter and parties specified shall be within forty feet of the booth; that the judges of election shall decide any dispute, except in case of a challenged vote, when all parties go before the judges.

Section 11 provides that a ballot and is to scratch all except the candidate he wishes to vote for, and it is required that the pencil or pen mark go through three-fourths of the names of the scratched. If more than one candidate for an office remain unscratched the ballot shall be void, unless other officers are properly voted for, then it at much of the ticket is valid.

Section 12 provides that the ballot shall not be taken further than the booth, and that no person shall advise or assist the voter in any way in preparing his ballot.

Section 13 limits the voters' time to two and a half minutes.
Section 14 provides for an exchange of ballots when the voter has defaced the first.

The appointment and duties of the special constable are given in section 15 as follows:

"The electoral board of each county or city shall appoint for each voting precinct the rein one constable, who shall be an honest and discreet person of said precinct, and be able to read and write, and who shall be a conservator of the peace, and shall be especially charged with enforcing the provisions of this act, having all the powers of a constable; and for such services he shall be allowed one dollar per day. He shall have the power of arresting, upon the verbal order of the judges of election, or a majority of them, of the precinct to which he is appointed, any person who is offending or attempting to violate any of the provisions of this act or disturb the peace, and the person so arrested shall be taken as soon as possible before a justice of the peace having cognizance of the offence, and be then proceeded against under the general laws of the State. At the request of any elector in the voting booth who may be physically or educationally unable to vote, the said special constable may render him assistance by reading the names and offices on the ballot, and pointing out to him the name or names he may wish to strike out, or otherwise aid him in preparing his ballot. In case said elector be blind, said special constable shall prepare said ballot for said elector in accordance with the instructions of said elector. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the said special constable shall take an oath to faithfully perform the duties thereof, and for a corrupt violation of the same he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not less than five hundred dollars and be imprisoned not less than one nor more than twelve months in jail.

Section 17 provides for the removal of the constable by the judges of the election at their pleasure, and the appointment of his successor.

Tired, Weak, Nervous
Could Not Sleep.

Prof. L. D. Edwards, of Preston, Idaho, says: "I was all run down, could not sleep, I would arise tired, discouraged and blue. I began taking
